

D & E PLASTICS LTD

HIGH PRECISION PLASTIC MOULDERS AND TOOLMAKERS

Health & Safety Statement of Intent

D&E Plastics LTD(D&E) recognises and accepts its duty under the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 to ensure as far as is reasonably practicable the health, safety and welfare of all employee's and other persons who may be affected by our company's undertaking. Such persons will include contractors, young persons, members of the public and any other persons who may be affected by our business activities.

It is the intention of D&E Plastics Limited to provide a safe and healthy working environment as far as is practicable for all our employees by:

- Providing a safe place of work.
- Providing and maintaining safe plant and equipment.
- Providing safe systems of work.
- Providing adequate and sufficient information, instruction, training and supervision.
- Providing for the safe use, handling, storage and transport of materials and substances.

The health and safety culture we aim to promote throughout the company relies on all persons to implement this policy according to their own duties.

Employees are reminded that under the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 they are responsible for the health and safety of themselves and any other persons who may be affected by their activities. Employees should inform their Site Supervisor or the Operational Manager of any health and safety issues with which they are concerned about and implement the arrangements set out within our company health and safety policy.

The Managing Director will undertake regular reviews of the health and safety policy and the way in which it has been implemented within our company to ensure that high standards of health and safety are constantly maintained and improved upon as required.

The company's Health and Safety Policy will be kept up to date in particular with regards to any changes in the company's activities including any change in the nature or size of the business.

The policy will be reviewed on at least an annual basis or in the event of a major change.
